Sub: Diploma Courses through distance learning mode conducted by National Institute of Health and Family Welfare – Sponsorship of candidates.

Sir/Madam,

You might be aware that National Institute of Health and Family Welfare (NIHFWD) is an autonomous Institute under the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India is conducting Diploma Courses through Distance Learning mode since last two decades. These courses are for those candidates who can complete the course from their own work place. The accreditation of the courses has already been applied to Distance Education Council. As per Gazette Notification issued by the Govt. of India, Ministry of Human Resource Development vide No.6-1/2013 dated 10.06.2015 (published in Gazette on dated 25.07.2015), all the degrees/diplomas/certificates awarded through distance model will be recognized for the purpose of employment under Central Government.

For the academic year 2016-17, the following six courses are going to be commenced from July 2016:

1. Post-graduate Diploma in Health & Family Welfare Management
2. Post-graduate Diploma in Hospital Management
3. Post-graduate Diploma in Health Promotion
4. Post-graduate Diploma in Applied Epidemiology
5. Post-graduate Diploma in Public Health Nutrition
6. Post-graduate Diploma in Health Communication

In this regard, an advertisement has already been published in National newspapers on 31st March 2016 and the same are posted in the Institute's web site i.e. www.nihfw.org. The fee for the course is Rs.21000/- each. You are requested to nominate candidates with State sponsorship for these courses. For the state sponsored candidates the two Contact Programmes of 5 days duration each and the terminal examination could be organized at the State Headquarter provided there are minimum 20 candidates in one Batch for each course.

This is for your kind information and with the request to sponsor candidates for these courses from your state.

Thanking you

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Thomas
